

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

Female TEAM LEADER

£15/hour

Job specification- Staff with good values, a pride for working with people, passion to develop skills and knowledge, and a positive character that you can bring to people's lives. Experience in Personality Disorder and trauma is preferred but comprehensive and specialist training is provided specific to the role.

We are recruiting for a team to provide support to a young woman with mental health needs to start in mid November, but if possible to start training before this. We require an excellent team leader to manage the lady and the team around her. You will need to be flexible as you will also be part of an on-call system, so you will need to easily be able to travel to the lady's home. We recruit specifically for the people we support, so we like it when you have similar interests or personality to them.

Leeds-based. Starting off in Cottingley as a temporary home for her, moving to somewhere else in Leeds for her forever home - TBC
