LOOKING FOR

WELL-BEING WORKERS £11/hour

No experience required - just good values, a pride for working with people, passion to develop skills and knowledge, and a positive character that you can bring to people's lives.

Full training is provided specific to the role.

We are recruiting specially for a gentleman who is currently in a hospital and will have his new home in Fearnville in June/July. We recruit specifically for the people we support, so we like it when you have similar interests or personality to them.

Visit our website www.mmbm.co.uk for more information.

WELL-BEING WORKER

Upholding the values we look for - flexibility, a willingness to learn, reflection, and most importantly, a passion for working with people.

To be part of a team of 1 or 2 service users. In instances of staff absence, it may be required to cover shifts with any service users across the company (all are based in Leeds). Travelling to the service user's home for work shifts.

Using your own interests and skills to build a relationship with the person and help develop their quality of life.

Providing physical support which may include helping with household tasks and personal care.

Providing emotional support for an individual and their families.

Supporting and helping with health care needs, including routine checks (or help to access the community for these health checks) or administering medication.

Encouraging and supporting the development of personal skills through hobbies and interests. Teaching life skills where appropriate.

Working with other healthcare professionals to ensure that all care needs meet the highest possible standards.

Applying skills and techniques as trained to ensure consistent and positive behaviour support is provided. Collecting behavioural data where requested.
